1. The population of Manchouli (117-27,49-36) is over 20,000 persons; 20 percent of this number are Russian emigres. There are five schools and five hospitals there. The Yuan Ta Mine, just south of Manchouli, supplies the town with coal.
2. There is a Soviet Consulate (sic) in Manchouli, and the Soviet Government operates a weather station and a radio station. The Commercial and Savings Bank, formerly owned by Russian emigres and closed by the Japanese, was reopened in 1947 by the Soviet authorities. The bank operates a creamery whose products are sent to Harbin.
3. Trains leave Manchouli daily for the USSR. The first train leaves at 6:30 a.m. and the second train at 9:35 p.m.
4. The Chinese Communists have established the Hu Lun Lake Marine Products Company to control the fishing industry on Hu Lun Lake (117-,49-), which yields ten million pounds of fish yearly.
